

Caring Corps Teams With Scottsdale Leadership

Foothills Caring Corps (FCC), a nonprofit providing in-home and transportation services to older adults in the North Valley who are homebound, is recruiting volunteers to assist participants with basic tasks and errands needed to live an independent lifestyle.

“Our older residents are among our community’s most precious treasures, and they need our support to continue living a life that’s both fulfilling and independent,” says FCC Executive Director Debra Determan. “Foothills Caring Corps is dedicated to empowering older adults, and volunteers are crucial to our success and reach.”

To aid recruitment efforts, FCC tapped Scottsdale Leadership, Inc., a nationally acclaimed leadership development and community stewardship organization. Participants in the nonprofit’s Core Program Class 28 are assisting FCC with volunteer outreach.

During the next few weeks, Scottsdale Leadership Class 28 participants are reaching out to North Valley residents, employers and neighborhood associations to identify new volunteers who are willing to donate their time on a regular, semi-regular or one-time basis. They are scheduling “lunch and learns” with area companies and developing a series of promotional tools that FCC can utilize with volunteer outreach throughout the year.

On April 4, participants will compete against four other groups of Class 28 classmates. Scottsdale community leaders will judge the competition and award a cash prize. The group will present its results in the first Scottsdale Leadership “Lead it Forward Showcase and Reception” at Scottsdale’s historic Hotel Valley Ho at 5:30pm. The public is invited.
