Scottsdale Leadership Class XXVI application deadline

Scottsdale Leadership, Inc., a nonprofit leadership development program serving Scottsdale and the surrounding community for more than 25 years is now accepting applications for Class XXVI. Interested applicants must apply by Friday, May 13, 2011 at 5 p.m. Scottsdale Leadership's mission is to inform, inspire and empower leaders to champion and strengthen the interests of the community

Each year, forty diverse and talented individuals graduate from the nine-month program with the knowledge, connections, skills and confidence take on leadership roles in the community.

Individuals interested in applying for the upcoming Scottsdale Leadership Class XXVI should do so by 5 p.m. on Friday, May 13, 2011. The interactive, nine-month, community leadership Core Program will run from September 2011 through May 2012. Applications are available at www.scottsdaleleadership.org or by calling the Scottsdale Leadership office at (480) 627-6710.

Candidates do not need to live or work in Scottsdale, but should have an interest in:

- Issues facing the local community
- Providing future leadership to community, business, or civic organizations
- Improving the Scottsdale community through their time, talents and resources

The Core Program consists of 17 topic-oriented days, along with special tours, events and a community service project. Tuition is $2,200. Partial scholarships are available and should be requested with application.

The application fee is $100. For more information about Scottsdale Leadership, visit www.scottsdaleleadership.org.
